Spike from The Quireboys: the Rock'n'Roll Storyteller

Wednesday, 11 September 2024

20:00 - 22:30

£18 tickets

Join us for a special evening of songs and stories with Spike - the founder and front man of The Quireboys - one of the UK's most enduring rock 'n' roll bands. A band that's been through different chapters and had different line-ups, but Spike is the constant throughout. Song writer, singer and leader of a band with which he has now become synonymous. With lifelong friend Guy Bailey, Spike penned the benchmark Quireboys songs - such as Hey You, I Don't Love You Any More and 7 O'Clock - tracks which have defined the band musically for decades and, to this day, remain the hallmark songs of any Quireboys show.

You will also enjoy a special appearance from Chris Heilman.

Gig Night with The Lost Trades

Thursday, 12 September 2024

20:00 - 22:30

£8 tickets

Join us for a night of music with The Lost Trades - an awesome vocal harmony trio with a cool Laurel Canyon vibe. With a sound that is reminiscent of the California folk scene of the late 60s/early 70s, their vocal harmonies have been described as "flawless", "spine tingling" and "magical".

Their live performances involve easy interchanging of instruments, with each of the three playing guitar, bass and percussion at different points. There's always a fun intimacy to their show, with the three engaging in comfortable repartee with each other, and the audience, like a group of old friends.

Peter Cox of Go West

Tuesday, 17 September 2024

21:00 - 23:00

£35 tickets

Join us for a special performance from Peter Cox, the frontman of the iconic 80s band, Go West!

With their iconic, signature keyboard riffs, Go West had a stream of hits in the U.K. and the U.S.A. during the 80s and 90s with singles such as 'We Close Our Eyes', and are probably best known for their multi-award-winning song, 'The King Of Wishful Thinking' from the soundtrack to the film 'Pretty Woman'.

Peter and his live band will be performing a mix of songs from throughout his career (including some Go West numbers), alongside his new album - 'Seaglass' - which has seen him reunite with original Go West producer, Gary Stevenson. The sound of 'Seaglass' is an unmistakable mix of Peter's unique distinct vocals and finely tuned songwriting skills. The first four singles from the album, 'Too Far Gone', 'She Wants Magic', 'Dream Burning Down' and 'Confidant' have all reached #1 on The Heritage Chart.
